ANNOUNCEMENT

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE PRINCESS OF ASTURIAS AWARD 2023

The Kenya Embassy in Madrid, Spain has forwarded invitation from the Director of Asturias Foundation informing of the call for nominations for the award 2023.

The Foundation seeks to award individuals and institutions that contribute to progress and social well-being in an extraordinary and exemplary way through their work and merit in scientific, technical, cultural, social and humanitarian fields. In addition, the contribution of this work should be considered in the broadest sense, that is, its contribution to the field should be of international scope and / or be acknowledged at an international level, be longstanding and hence, unquestionably appropriate.

The entry regulations for the 2023 edition are available on the website: <https://www.fpa.es/en/princess-of-asturias-awards/regulations/>.

Applicants are invited to submit applications to any eight awarded categories: Arts, Social Science, Communication and Humanities, Concord, International Cooperation, Sports, Technical and Scientific Research and Literature.

The deadline for submitting applications will be on Thursday, 2nd March 2023. (Until 11:59 p.m., Spanish time, GMT+1).
